

Water efficiency fittings

Water-saving in a user-friendly way!

The water fittings used in this building have solutions that allow for a significant reduction of water consumption.

Aerators (optically increase the flow of water through aeration), or hand movement detectors, are some of the most commonly used.

Skanska
Green
Education