

Smoking ban

The smoking ban in, and around, the building (7.5 m) ensures a supply of fresh air. In a single cigarette there are 600 ingredients that form over 7,000 compounds when burned, 69 of them are known to be carcinogenic. Second-hand smoke exposes non-smokers to the same toxins, increasing the number of people subject to health risks.

Skanska
Green
Education